The Stock Market

The Chief Economist's Analysis [a focus on BERNABE CI]

The turnover of BERNABE CI stood at 11.3 billion FCFA in the first quarter of 2019, a decrease of 4% compared to the previous year at the same period. The company justifies this decline by the competition of the informal sector and by access to its KM4 store made difficult by the works on the Boulevard de Marseille. As for net profit, it contracted by 28% to reach 406.6 million FCFA over the period under review, due to lower turnover and higher operating expenses, in connection with the investments made in 2018. The price of the BERNABE CI stood at 1,390 FCFA at the end of the session of 20 September 2019, compared with 2,400 FCFA at the beginning of the year, a loss of 42.1%. The overall depreciation of the share has been maintained since mid-2016 and can mainly be explained by the decrease in the company's net result and, consequently, by the reduction in the amount of dividends distributed. Indeed, in respect of the 2018 financial year, adjusted shareholders remuneration is 900 FCFA per share, compared to 1,260 FCFA and 3,252 FCFA for the 2017 and 2016 financial years respectively. For the rest of 2019, the company's performance should not be significantly improved in relation to the difficulties mentioned above, despite the adjustments made. This situation should constrain the future appreciation of the BERNABE CI share price over the medium term.

News BRVM Corporates

□ [BOA BN]: The rating agency Bloomfield Investment has re-evaluated BOA BENIN's rating. The agency has maintained the bank's ratings, namely "A+" on the long term, with a stable outlook, and "A1" on the short term, with a stable outlook. The factors considered positive by Bloomfield are the leadership of the bank in the Benin banking market; the progression of the activities; adaptation to the new regulatory provisions; the decrease in the cost of risk and the significant support of the BOA / BMCE group. The main factors of fragility identified are an ability to deploy the SME financing strategy to demonstrate; the rise in the cost / income ratio related to the decline in Net Banking Income; the low diversification of Benin's economy, which relies mainly on the cotton sector and trade with Nigeria.

□ [CRRH-UEMOA]: The rating agency Bloomfield Investment has re-evaluated the CRRH-UEMOA rating. It appears that the financial institution maintain its ratings, notably in the long-term "AA+" and the short-term "A1+", with stable outlook. The factors considered positive by Bloomfield are the good level of refinancing; reinforcement of the risk management system; gradual adaptation to the new regulatory framework of the banking sector and the strengthening of its equity. The main fragility factors identified are an overall exchange risk hedging mechanism to be strengthened; the socio-political and security situation still worrying in WAEMU; and the land framework of the countries of the WAEMU zone which is relatively fragile.

Market News

□[CENTRAL AFRICA]: On 16 September 2019, the African Development Bank (AfDB) has officially presented its Regional Integration Strategy Paper for Central Africa 2019-2025 in Yaoundé, Cameroon. This paper, which defines the general framework for AfDB interventions over the period indicated, aims to stimulate economic diversification and structural transformation by increasing intra-regional trade in Central Africa. The implementation of the strategy provides for an overall investment amounting to approximately USD 4.4 billion. About 88% of the planned funding will be devoted to reinforcing regional infrastructure (energy, transport, and information and communication technology) while 12% has been earmarked for developing intraregional trade and building institutional capacity in regional economic communities.

□[SOUTH AFRICA]: According to a recent press statement from South Africa's central bank, economic activity in South Africa rebounded in the second quarter of 2019, to + 3.1%, following the contraction recorded in the first quarter (-3.1%). The sharp recovery in the second quarter was driven by stronger output in nearly all sectors, including investment and government consumption spending. The projected economic growth rate for 2019 remains unchanged at 0.6%. However, the forecasts for 2020 and 2021 were respectively reduced to 1.5% (1.8%) and 1.8% (2.0%), due to revisions to global growth and domestic potential growth.
